ABSTRACT

Bibliographic data, physical characteristics, contents, prices, and ordering instructions for Spanish instructional materials listed in this issue of the Materials Acquisition Project are provided for each entry. Subject categories include social science, language arts, pure science, technology, the arts, literature, and history. Materials are classified according to the Dewey decimal system by subject matter, with related subject areas utilized. The annotation is an objective description of materials and often includes suggestions concerning appropriate grade-level and utilization of materials. The bibliographic materials are generally adapted for use by bilingual teachers. Many familiar works included in the compilation have been translated from foreign languages into Spanish. For the companion documents, see FL 002 968-FL 002 976. (RL)

ESEA TITLE VII

San Diego City Schools

DECEMBER 1971 | 2950 NATIONAL AVE., SAN DIEGO, CA. 92113 | Volume 2 Number 5

ACQUISITIONS IN SPAIN

Spain, one of the preeminent book publishing countries on the European Continent, is currently well-represented in the Project's collection as a result of the Coordinator's acquisitions trip to Spain the past summer. Materials were purchased from fifty major Spanish publishers.

The names of these fifty firms are: Aguilar, Alvarez, Anaya, Ancora, Aurora, Betis, Bibliográfica Hijos de Santiago Rodríquez, Bosch, Bruguera, Bruño, C.E.A.C., Cabezas Serra, Cantábrica, Casals, Castillo, del Toro, Didácticas, Don Bosco, Doncel, E.C.I.R., E.T.A., E.V.A., Escuela Trabajo, Fher, Gaisa, La Galera, Grafinta, Gustavo Gili, Hechos y Dichos, Juventud, Labor, Librería General, Luis Vives, Magisterio Español, Marcombo, Marfil, Miquel, Molino, Paraninfo, Prima Luce, Reverté, S.M., Salvat, Salvatella, Santillana, Sopena, Susaeta, Teide, Timun Mas, and Vicens Vives.

Librería Bosch in Barcelona was an intermediary for the Project's business transactions with all of these publishers except Anaya, E.V.A., Prima Luce, and Teide, with whom the Coordinator dealt directly.

ACQUISITIONS IN SOUTH AMERICA

Stelvio Locci returned from his acquisitions trip to Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Perú, and Venezuela, two days before Christmas. More specific information on the distributors and publishers from whom he purchased materials will be forthcoming in a month or so.
